NUPAFEED SUPPLEMENTS AMATEUR POINTS AWARD RULES

1. Anyone wishing to be considered for the Awards, must obtain a qualification card from the BSHA office; the cards are free of charge.
2. There are eleven categories and a Horse may be entered in more than one category; simply tick the categories you wish to enter on the Entry Form page and then complete the section on the back of the Points Form as you do each Show.
3. Points will be awarded to the five highest placed Exhibits respectively in all BSHA Affiliated classes, including Working Show Horse classes. Points do not apply to Champion or Reserve placing. (First = 5, Second = 4 etc.)
4. Double points will be awarded at the National Championship Show. Entries MUST be made on a separate National Championship Amateur Points form, available from the Show Office at the Show.
5. This series is open to Amateur Members only (please see Rule 7a for Definitions and Classifications).
6. Members of the Association's Board are not permitted to compete for these awards.
7. Points can only be added to your Points Forms when it is the same Horse/Rider combination; another Rider can ride the Horse during the season but no points can be allocated to the Points Forms.
